Our Story

We've always appreciated the simple things in life. Like good friends, great conversations, and the constant companionship of a great-fitting pair of jeans. We used to talk about denim a lot. They say "do what you love" so, over time, we've become a small company dedicated to making high-quality jeans available to people like you, for a fair price.

What is Raw Denim?

Raw denim is a type of denim that hasn't been through a washing or distressing process. It is denim in its purest form. With raw denim, you get to break in your own pair of jeans and create fades that are unique to you and your lifestyle.
